Justice Carter, "fuel dictator" of Ellinois, had planned to-day to arrange an inquiry into coal transportation problems. The operators have agreed tile coal prices.

Jovernment does not wish Carter to fix any price schedule now. It is pointed out that if the States fix prices and the Federal Trade Commission establishes another price under authority from the President. confusion may arise with the coal operators like the railroads claiming too many bosses.

An understanding between the lovernment and the State authorities on a course of procedure was ex-
